JOINT MOTION TO STAY

The Parties request this Court stay the scheduling order, ECF No. 29, as well as all pending motions, while the parties finalize their tentative settlement agreement. As reported to the Court, ECF No. 46, the parties reached a tentative settlement agreement at mediation, subject to agreement on final language and approval of necessary officials. Additional time, however, is needed to (1) exchange proposed language, and (2) get formal approval from all necessary government officials as to the final agreed-upon language. Given the imminent settlement, proceeding with the deadlines in the scheduling order would likely be a waste of resources.

Nevertheless, if the scheduling order is not stayed, the parties will have to continue preparing this case for trial so that they are not prejudiced if the settlement is not finalized.

WHEREFORE the parties move this Court for entry of an order staying the scheduling order, ECF No. 29, as well as all pending motions and allowing such other relief as is appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Anthony E. Rothert
